ERK 108 – Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data

SR 0.235.1
Revidierte Fassung vom 18. Mai 2018
Zusammenstellung von David Vasella
Walder Wyss AG • datenrecht.ch • david.vasella@walderwyss.com

Preamble

Chapter I – General provisions
  Article 1 – Object and purpose
  Article 2 – Definitions
  Article 3 – Scope

Chapter II – Basic principles for data protection
  Article 4 – Duties of the Parties
  Article 5 – Quality of data
  Article 6 – Special categories of data
  Article 7 – Data security
  Article 8 – Additional safeguards for the data subject
  Article 9 – Exceptions and restrictions
  Article 10 – Sanctions and remedies
  Article 11 – Extended protection

Chapter III – Transborder data flows
  Article 12 – Transborder flows of personal data and domestic law

Chapter IV – Mutual assistance
  Article 13 – Co-operation between Parties
  Article 14 – Assistance to data subjects resident abroad
  Article 15 – Safeguards concerning assistance rendered by designated authorities
  Article 16 – Refusal of requests for assistance
  Article 17 – Costs and procedures of assistance

Chapter V – Consultative Committee
  Article 18 – Composition of the committee
  Article 19 – Functions of the committee
  Article 20 – Procedure

Chapter VI – Amendments
  Article 21 – Amendments

Chapter VII – Final clauses
  Article 22 – Entry into force
Article 23 – Accession by non-member States
Article 24 – Territorial clause
Article 25 – Reservations
Article 26 – Denunciation
Article 27 – Notifications

In witness whereof the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto, have signed this Convention.

Done at Strasbourg, the 28th day of January 1981, in English and in French, both texts being equally authoritative, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Council of Europe. The Secretary General of the Council of Europe shall transmit certified copies to each member State of the Council of Europe and to any State invited to accede to this Convention.
Preamble

The member States of the Council of Europe, signatory and the other signatories hereto,

Considering that the aim of the Council of Europe is to achieve greater unity between its members, based in particular on respect for the rule of law, as well as human rights and fundamental freedoms;

Considering that it is desirable to extend the safeguards for everyone necessary to secure the human dignity and protection of the human rights and fundamental freedoms, and in particular the right to the respect for privacy, taking account of the increasing flow across frontiers of personal data undergoing automatic of every individual and, given the diversification, intensification and globalisation of data processing and personal data flows, personal autonomy based on a person’s right to control his or her personal data and the processing of such data;

Recalling that the right to protection of personal data is to be considered in respect of its role in society and that it has to be reconciled with other human rights and fundamental freedoms, including freedom of expression;

Reaffirming at the same time their commitment to freedom of information regardless of frontiers, considering that this Convention permits account to be taken, in the implementation of the rules laid down therein, of the principle of the right of access to official documents;

Recognising that it is necessary to reconcile promote at the global level the fundamental values of the respect for privacy and protection of personal data, thereby contributing to the free flow of information between peoples;

Recognising the interest of a reinforcement of international co-operation between the Parties to the Convention.

Have agreed as follows:
Chapter I – General provisions

Article 1 – Object and purpose

The purpose of this Convention is to secure in the territory of each Party, for the protection of every individual, whatever his or her nationality or residence, with regard to the processing of their personal data, thereby contributing to respect for his or her human rights and fundamental freedoms, and in particular his or her right to privacy, with regard to automatic processing of personal data relating to him (data protection).

Article 2 – Definitions

For the purposes of this Convention:

a. “personal data” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable individual (data subject);

b. “automated data file” means any set of data undergoing automatic processing; “data processing” means any operation or set of operations performed on personal data, such as the collection, storage, preservation, alteration, retrieval, disclosure, making available, erasure, or destruction of, or the carrying out of logical and/or arithmetical operations on such data;

c. “automatic processing” includes the following operations if carried out wholly or in part by automated means: storage of data, carrying out of logical and/or arithmetical operations on those data, their alteration, erasure, retrieval or dissemination; where automated processing is not used, “data processing” means an operation or set of operations performed upon personal data within a structured set of such data which are accessible or retrievable according to specific criteria;

d. “controller of the file” means the natural or legal person, public authority, service, agency or any other body who is competent according to the national law to decide what should be the purpose of the automated data file, which categories of personal data should be stored and which operations should be applied to them, which, alone or jointly with others, has decision-making power with respect to data processing;

e. “recipient” means a natural or legal person, public authority, service, agency or any other body to whom data are disclosed or made available;

f. “processor” means a natural or legal person, public authority, service, agency or any other body which processes personal data on behalf of the controller.”

Article 3 – Scope

1. The Parties undertake each Party undertakes to apply this Convention to automated personal data files and automatic data processing of personal data subject to its jurisdiction in the public and private sectors, thereby securing every individual’s right to protection of his or her personal data.

2. Any State may, at the time of signature or when depositing its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, or at any later time, give notice by a declaration addressed to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe:

a. that it will not apply this Convention to certain categories of automated personal data files, a list of which will be deposited. In this list it shall not include, however, categories of automated data files subject under its domestic law to data protection provisions. Consequently, it shall amend this list by a new declaration whenever additional categories of automated...
personal data files are subjected to data protection provisions under its domestic law;

b.—that it will also apply this Convention to information relating to groups of persons, associations, foundations, companies, corporations and any other bodies consisting directly or indirectly of individuals, whether or not such bodies possess legal personality;

c.—that it will also apply this Convention to personal data files which are not processed automatically.

2. Any State which has extended the scope of this Convention by any of the declarations provided for in sub-paragraph 2.b or c above may give notice in the said declaration that such extensions shall apply only to certain categories of personal data files, a list of which will be deposited.

4. Any Party which has excluded certain categories of automated personal data files by a declaration provided for in sub-paragraph 2.a above may not claim the application of this Convention to such categories by a Party which has not excluded them.

5. Likewise, a Party which has not made one or other of the extensions provided for in sub-paragraphs 2.b and c above may not claim the application of this Convention on these points with respect to a Party which has made such extensions.

6. The declarations provided for in paragraph 2 above shall take effect three months after the date of receipt of such notification. This Convention shall not apply to data processing carried out by an individual in the course of purely personal or household activities.
Chapter II – Basic principles for the protection of personal data

Article 4 – Duties of the Parties
1. Each Party shall take the necessary measures in its domestic law to give effect to the basic principles for data protection set out in this chapter, provisions of this Convention and secure their effective application.
2. These measures shall be taken at the latest by each Party and shall have come into force by the time of entry into force of this Convention in respect of that Party.
3. Each Party undertakes:
   a. to allow the Convention Committee provided for in Chapter VI to evaluate the effectiveness of the measures it has taken in its law to give effect to the provisions of this Convention; and
   b. to contribute actively to this evaluation process.

Article 5 – Quality of data, processing and quality of data
1. Data processing shall be proportionate in relation to the legitimate purpose pursued and reflect at all stages of the processing a fair balance between all interests concerned, whether public or private, and the rights and freedoms at stake.
2. Each Party shall provide that data processing can be carried out on the basis of the free, specific, informed and unambiguous consent of the data subject or of some other legitimate basis laid down by law.
3. Personal data undergoing processing shall be processed lawfully.

Article 6 – Special categories of data
1. The processing of:
   a. genetic data;
   b. personal data relating to offences, criminal proceedings and convictions, and related security measures;
   c. biometric data uniquely identifying a person;
   d. personal data revealing the information they reveal relating to racial or ethnic origin, political opinions or trade-union membership, religious or other beliefs, as well as personal data concerning health or sexual life, may not be processed automatically unless domestic law provides appropriate safeguards. The same shall apply to personal data relating to criminal convictions.
shall only be allowed where appropriate safeguards are enshrined in law, complementing those of this Convention.

2. Such safeguards shall guard against the risks that the processing of sensitive data may present for the interests, rights and fundamental freedoms of the data subject, notably a risk of discrimination.

Article 7 – Data security

Appropriate

1. Each Party shall provide that the controller, and where applicable the processor, takes appropriate security measures shall be taken for the protection of personal data stored in automated data files against risks such as accidental or unauthorised destruction or accidental loss, as well as against unauthorised access, alteration or dissemination. Unauthorised access to, destruction, loss, use, modification or disclosure of personal data.

2. Each Party shall provide that the controller notifies, without delay, at least the competent supervisory authority within the meaning of Article 15 of this Convention, of those data breaches which may seriously interfere with the rights and fundamental freedoms of data subjects.

Article 8 – Additional safeguards for the data subject

Transparency of processing

1. Any person shall be enabled to establish the existence of an automated personal data file, its main purposes, as well as the identity and habitual residence or principal place of business of the controller of the file in establishment:

2. Every individual shall have a right:

(a) to obtain, on request, at reasonable intervals and without excessive delay or expense, confirmation of whether the processing of personal data relating to him are stored in the automated data file as well as or her, the communication to him of such data in an intelligible form of the data processed, all available information on their origin, on the preservation period as well as any other information that the controller is required to provide in order to ensure the transparency of processing in.
Chapter IV – Supervisory Authorities

Article 15 – Supervisory authorities

1. Each Party shall provide that controllers and, where applicable, processors, take all appropriate measures to comply with the obligations of this Convention and be able to demonstrate, subject to the domestic legislation adopted in accordance with Article 11, paragraph 3, in particular to the competent supervisory authority provided for in Article 15, that the data processing under their control is in compliance with the provisions of this Convention.

2. Each Party shall provide that controllers and, where applicable, processors, examine the likely impact of intended data processing on the rights and fundamental freedoms of data subjects prior to the commencement of such processing, and shall design the data processing in such a manner as to prevent or minimise the risk of interference with those rights and fundamental freedoms.

3. Each Party shall provide that controllers, and, where applicable, processors, implement technical and organisational measures which take into account the implications of the right to the protection of personal data at all stages of the data processing.

4. Each Party may, having regard to the risks arising for the interests, rights and fundamental freedoms of the data subjects, adapt the application of the provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 in the law giving effect to the provisions of this Convention, according to the nature and volume of the data, the nature, scope and purpose of the processing and, where appropriate, the size of the controller or processor.

Article 911 – Exceptions and restrictions

1. No exception to the provisions of Articles 5, 6 and 8 of set out in this Convention, Chapter shall be allowed except within the limits defined in this article.2.——Derogation from the provisions of Articles 5, 6, and 8 of this Convention shall be allowed when such derogation Article 5, paragraph 4, Article 7, paragraph 2, Article 8, paragraph 1 and Article 9, when such an exception is provided for by the law, respects the essence of the Party fundamental rights and freedoms and constitutes a necessary and proportionate measure in a democratic society in for:

...

a. the interests protection of a—protecting State national security, defence, public safety, the monetary important economic and financial interests of the State or the suppression the impartiality and independence of the judiciary or the prevention, investigation and prosecution of criminal offences, and the execution of criminal penalties, and other essential objectives of general public interest;

b. protecting the protection of the data subject or the rights and fundamental freedoms of others, notably freedom of expression.

Restrictions on the exercise of the rights provisions specified in Article 8, paragraphs b, c, d, e, and f may be provided for by law with respect to automated personal data files used for statistics or for data processing for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes when there is obviously no recognisable risk of an infringement of the privacy of the rights and fundamental freedoms of data subjects.

Article 10

In addition to the exceptions allowed for in paragraph 1 of this article, with reference to processing activities for national security and defence purposes, each Party may provide, by law and only to the extent that it constitutes a necessary and proportionate measure in a democratic society to fulfil such an aim, exceptions to Article 4, paragraph 3, Article 14, paragraphs 5 and 6 and Article 15, paragraph 7. littere a, b, c and d.

This is without prejudice to the requirement that processing activities for national security and defence purposes are subject to independent and effective review and supervision under the domestic legislation of the respective Party.

Article 12 – Sanctions and remedies

Each Party undertakes to establish appropriate judicial and non-judicial sanctions and remedies for violations of the provisions of domestic law giving effect to the basic principles for data protection set out in this Convention.

Article 11 – Extended protection

None of the provisions of this chapter shall be interpreted as limiting or otherwise affecting the possibility for a Party to grant data subjects a wider measure of protection than that stipulated in this Convention.
Chapter III – Transborder data flows of personal data

Article 1214 – Transborder flows of personal data

1. The following provisions shall apply to the transfer across national borders, by whatever medium, of personal data undergoing automatic processing or collected with a view to their being automatically processed.

2. A Party shall not, for the sole purpose of the protection of personal data, prohibit or subject to special authorisation transborder flows of personal data going to the territory of another Party, or the transfer of such data to a recipient who is subject to the jurisdiction of another Party to the Convention. Such a Party may, however, do so if there is a real and serious risk that the transfer to another Party, or from that other Party to a non-Party, would lead to circumventing the provisions of the Convention. A Party may also do so if bound by harmonised rules of protection shared by States belonging to a regional international organisation.

2. When the recipient is subject to the jurisdiction of a State or international organisation which is not Party to this Convention, the transfer of personal data may only take place where an appropriate level of protection based on the provisions of this Convention is secured.

3. Nevertheless, each Party shall be entitled to derogate from the provisions of paragraph 2. An appropriate level of protection can be secured by:

   a. the law of that State or international organisation, including the applicable international treaties or agreements; or
   b. ad hoc or approved standardised safeguards provided by

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of the previous paragraphs, each Party may provide that the transfer of personal data may take place, if:

   a. insofar as its legislation includes specific regulations for certain categories of personal data or of automated personal data files, because of the nature of those data or those files, except where the regulations of the other Party provide an equivalent protection; the data subject has given explicit, specific and free consent, after being informed of risks arising in the absence of appropriate safeguards; or
   b. when the transfer is made from its territory to the territory of a non-Contracting State through the intermediary of the territory of another Party, in order to avoid such transfers resulting in circumvention of the legislation of the Party referred to at the beginning of this paragraph, the specific interests of the data subject require it in the particular case, or
   c. prevailing legitimate interests, in particular important public interests, are provided for by law and such transfer constitutes a necessary and proportionate measure in a democratic society; or
   d. it constitutes a necessary and proportionate measure in a democratic society for freedom of expression.

5. Each Party shall provide that the competent supervisory authority, within the meaning of Article 15 of this Convention, is provided with all relevant information concerning the transfers of data referred to in paragraph 3. littera b and, upon request, paragraph 4. litterae b and c.

6. Each Party shall also provide that the supervisory authority is entitled to request that the person who transfers data demonstrates the effectiveness of the safeguards or the existence of prevailing legitimate interests and that the supervisory authority may, in order to protect the rights and fundamental freedoms of data subjects, prohibit such transfers, suspend them or subject them to conditions.

[Article 17(3) of the Protocol amending the Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data (ETS No. 108):] “The text of Article 12 of the Convention (new Article 14) includes the provisions of Article 2 of the Additional Protocol of 2001 regarding supervisory authorities and transborder data flows (ETS No. 181) on transborder flows of personal data to a recipient which is not subject to the jurisdiction of a Party to the Convention.”

Article 2 ETS No. 181 – Transborder flows of personal data to a recipient which is not subject to the jurisdiction of a Party to the Convention.

1 Each Party shall provide for the transfer of personal data to a recipient that is subject to the jurisdiction of a State or organisation that is not Party to the Convention only if that State or organisation ensures an adequate level of protection for the intended data transfer.

2 By way of derogation from paragraph 1 of Article 2 of this Protocol, each Party may allow for the transfer of personal data:

a if domestic law provides for it because of:

– specific interests of the data subject, or – legitimate prevailing interests, especially important public interests, or b if safeguards, which can in particular result from contractual clauses, are provided by the controller responsible for the transfer and are found adequate by the competent authorities according to domestic law.

Chapter IV – Supervisory Authorities

Article 15 – Supervisory authorities

1. The competent supervisory authorities shall be consulted on proposals for any legislative or administrative measures which provide for the processing of personal data.

2. Each competent supervisory authority shall deal with requests and complaints lodged by data subjects concerning their data protection rights and shall keep data subjects informed of progress.

3. The supervisory authorities shall act with complete independence and impartiality in performing their duties and exercising their powers and in doing so shall neither seek nor accept instructions.

4. Each Party shall ensure that the supervisory authorities are provided with the resources necessary for the effective performance of their functions and exercise of their powers.

5. Each Party shall provide for one or more authorities to be responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of this Convention.

6. Each supervisory authority shall have powers of investigation and intervention.

7. Each Party shall ensure that the supervisory authorities are provided with the functions relating to transfers of data provided for under Article 14, notably the approval of standardised safeguards.

8. Each Party shall have powers to issue decisions with respect to violations of the provisions of this Convention and may, in particular, impose administrative sanctions.

9. Each Party shall have the power to engage in legal proceedings or to bring to the attention of the competent judicial authorities violations of the provisions of this Convention.

10. The supervisory authorities shall not be competent with respect to processing carried out by bodies when acting in their judicial capacity.

11. Each Party shall provide for one or more authorities to be responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of this Convention.

12. Each Party shall have powers of investigation and intervention.

13. Each Party shall perform the functions relating to transfers of data provided for under Article 14, notably the approval of standardised safeguards.

14. Each Party shall have powers to issue decisions with respect to violations of the provisions of this Convention and may, in particular, impose administrative sanctions.

15. Each Party shall have the power to engage in legal proceedings or to bring to the attention of the competent judicial authorities violations of the provisions of this Convention.

16. Each Party shall promote:

   a. public awareness of their functions and powers, as well as their activities;

   b. public awareness of the rights of data subjects and the exercise of such rights;

   c. awareness of controllers and processors of their responsibilities under this Convention;

   d. specific attention shall be given to the data protection rights of children and other vulnerable individuals.
Chapter V – Co-operation and mutual assistance

Article 16 – Co-operation between Parties

1. The Parties agree to co-operate and render each other mutual assistance in order to implement this Convention.

2. For that purpose:
   a. each Party shall designate one or more supervisory authorities, within the meaning of Article 15 of this Convention, the name and address of each of which it shall communicate to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe;
   b. each Party which has designated more than one supervisory authority shall specify the competence of each authority in its communication referred to in the previous sub-paragraph, the competence of each authority within the meaning of Article 15 of this Convention.

Article 17 – Forms of co-operation

1. An authority designated by a Party shall at the request of an authority designated by another Party, the supervisory authorities, shall co-operate with one another to the extent necessary for the performance of their duties and exercise of their powers, in particular
   a. providing mutual assistance by exchanging relevant and useful information and co-operating with each other under the condition that, as regards the protection of personal data, all the rules and safeguards of this Convention are complied with;
   b. co-ordinating their investigations or interventions, or conducting joint actions;
   c. furnishing providing information and documentation on its law and administrative practice in the field of relating to data protection
   d. take, in conformity with its domestic law and for the sole purpose of protection of privacy, all appropriate measures for furnishing factual information relating to specific automatic processing carried out in its territory, with the exception however of the personal data being processed.

2. The information referred to in paragraph 1 shall not include personal data undergoing processing unless such data are essential for co-operation, or where the data subject concerned has given explicit, specific, free and informed consent to its provision.

3. In order to organise their co-operation and to perform the duties set out in the preceding paragraphs, the supervisory authorities of the Parties shall form a network.

Article 1418 – Assistance to data subjects resident abroad

1. Each Party shall assist any person resident abroad data subject, whatever his or her nationality or residence, to exercise the rights conferred by its domestic law giving effect to the principles set out in Article 8 bis or her rights under Article 9 of this Convention.

2. When such person data subject resides the territory of another Party, he or she shall be given the option of submitting the request through the intermediary of the supervisory authority designated by that Party.

3. The request for assistance shall contain all the necessary particulars, relating inter alia to:
   a. the name, address and any other relevant particulars identifying the person making the request;

b. the automated personal data file, to which the request pertains, or its controller;

c. the purpose of the request.

Article 15.19 – Safeguards concerning assistance rendered by designated authorities

1. A supervisory authority designated by a Party which has received information from another supervisory authority designated by another Party, either accompanying a request for assistance or in reply to its own request for assistance, shall not use that information for purposes other than those specified in the request for assistance.

2. Each Party shall see to it that the persons belonging to or acting on behalf of the designated authority shall be bound by appropriate obligations of secrecy or confidentiality with regard to that information.

3. In no case may a designated supervisory authority be allowed to make a request for assistance on behalf of a data subject resident abroad, of its own accord and without the express consent of the data subject concerned.

Article 16.20 – Refusal of requests for assistance

A designated supervisory authority to which a request for assistance is addressed under Articles 13 or 14 Article 17 of this Convention may not refuse to comply with it unless:

a. the request is not compatible with the powers in the field of data protection of the authorities responsible for replying to requests;

b. the request does not comply with the provisions of this Convention;

c. compliance with the request would be incompatible with the sovereignty, national security or public policy (ordre public) order of the Party by which it was designated, or with the rights and fundamental freedoms of persons under the jurisdiction of that Party.

Article 17.21 – Costs and procedures of assistance

1. Mutual cooperation and mutual assistance which the Parties render each other under Article 13.17 and assistance they render to data subjects abroad under Article 14 Articles 9 and 18 shall not give rise to the payment of any costs or fees other than those incurred for experts and interpreters. The latter costs or fees shall be borne by the Party which has designated the authority making the request for assistance.

2. The data subject may not be charged costs or fees in connection with the steps taken on his or her behalf in the territory of another Party other than those lawfully payable by residents of that Party.

3. Other details concerning the assistance relating in particular to the forms and procedures and the languages to be used, shall be established directly between the Parties concerned.
Chapter VI — Consultative Convention Committee

Article 1922 — Composition of the committee
1. A Consultative Convention Committee shall be set up after the entry into force of this Convention.
2. Each Party shall appoint a representative to the committee and a deputy representative. Any member State of the Council of Europe which is not a Party to the Convention shall have the right to be represented on the committee by an observer.
3. The Consultative Convention Committee may, by unanimous decision, invite any non-member State, a decision taken by a majority of two-thirds of the representatives of the Parties, invite an observer to be represented at its meetings.
4. Any Party which is not a member of the Council of Europe which is not a Party to the Convention to be represented by an observer at a given meeting shall contribute to the funding of the activities of the Consultative Convention Committee according to the modalities established by the Committee of Ministers in agreement with that Party.

Article 1923 — Functions of the committee
The Consultative Convention Committee:

a. may make proposals, recommendations with a view to facilitating or improving the application of the Convention;

b. may make proposals for amendment of this Convention in accordance with Article 21-25;

c. shall formulate its opinion on any proposal for amendment of this Convention which is referred to it in accordance with Article 21-25, paragraph 3;

d. may, at the request of a Party, express an opinion on any question concerning the interpretation or application of this Convention;

e. shall prepare, before any new accession to the Convention, an opinion for the Committee of Ministers relating to the level of personal data protection of the candidate for accession and, where necessary, recommend measures to take to reach compliance with the provisions of this Convention;

f. may, at the request of a State or an international organisation, evaluate whether the level of personal data protection the former provides is in compliance with the provisions of this Convention and, where necessary, recommend measures to be taken in order to reach such compliance;

g. may develop or approve models of standardised safeguards referred to in Article 14;

h. shall review the implementation of this Convention by the Parties and recommend measures to be taken in the case where a Party is not in compliance with this Convention;

i. shall facilitate, where necessary, the friendly settlement of all difficulties related to the application of this Convention.

Article 2024 — Procedure

1. The Consultative Convention Committee shall be convened by the Secretary General of the Council of Europe. Its first meeting shall be held within twelve months of the entry into force of this Convention. It shall subsequently meet at least once every two years and in any case when one-third of the representatives of the Parties request its convocation.
2. A majority of representatives of the Parties shall constitute a quorum for a meeting of the Consultative Committee.

3. After each of its meetings, the Consultative Convention Committee shall submit to the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe a report on its work and on the functioning of this Convention.

3. The voting arrangements in the Convention Committee are laid down in the elements for the rules of procedure appended to Protocol CETS No. [223].

4. Subject to the provisions of this Convention, the Consultative Committee shall draw up its own Rules of Procedure. The Convention Committee shall draw up the other elements of its rules of procedure and establish, in particular, the procedures for evaluation and review referred to in Article 4, paragraph 3, and Article 23, litters e, f and h, on the basis of objective criteria.
Chapter VI – Amendments

Article 21 – Amendments

1. Amendments to this Convention may be proposed by a Party, the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe or the Consultative Convention Committee.

2. Any proposal for amendment shall be communicated by the Secretary General of the Council of Europe to the Parties to this Convention, to the other member States of the Council of Europe, to the European Union and to every non-member State or international organisation which has acceded to or has been invited to accede to this Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article 23.

3. Moreover, any amendment proposed by a Party or the Committee of Ministers shall be communicated to the Consultative Convention Committee, which shall submit to the Committee of Ministers its opinion on that proposed amendment.

4. The Committee of Ministers shall consider the proposed amendment and any opinion submitted by the Consultative Convention Committee and may approve the amendment.

5. The text of any amendment approved by the Committee of Ministers in accordance with paragraph 4 of this article shall be forwarded to the Parties for acceptance.

6. Any amendment approved in accordance with paragraph 4 of this article shall come into force on the thirtieth day after all Parties have informed the Secretary General of their acceptance thereof.

7. Moreover, the Committee of Ministers may, after consulting the Convention Committee, unanimously decide that a particular amendment shall enter into force at the expiration of a period of three years from the date on which it has been opened to acceptance, unless a Party notifies the Secretary General of the Council of Europe of an objection to its entry into force. If such an objection is notified, the amendment shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the date on which the Party to this Convention which has notified the objection has deposited its instrument of acceptance with the Secretary General of the Council of Europe.
Chapter VIII – Final clauses

Article 2226 – Entry into force
1. This Convention shall be open for signature by the member States of the Council of Europe and by the European Union. It is subject to ratification, acceptance or approval. Instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the Secretary General of the Council of Europe.

2. This Convention shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the expiration of a period of three months after the date on which five member States of the Council of Europe have expressed their consent to be bound by the Convention in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

3. In respect of any member State which subsequently expresses its consent to be bound by it, the Convention shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the expiration of a period of three months after the date of deposit of the instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval.

Article 2227 – Accession by non-member States or international organisations
1. After the entry into force of this Convention, the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe may, after consulting the Parties to this Convention and obtaining their unanimous agreement, and in light of the opinion prepared by the Convention Committee in accordance with Article 23 e, invite any State not a member of the Council of Europe or an international organisation to accede to this Convention by a decision taken by the majority provided for in Article 20.d of the Statute of the Council of Europe and by the unanimous vote of the representatives of the Contracting States entitled to sit on the Committee of Ministers.

2. In respect of any State acceding to this Convention according to paragraph 1 above, the Convention shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the expiration of a period of three months after the date of deposit of the instrument of accession with the Secretary General of the Council of Europe.

Article 2228 – Territorial clause
1. Any State may, the European Union or other international organisation may, at the time of signature or when depositing its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, specify the territory or territories to which this Convention shall apply.

2. Any State, the European Union or other international organisation, at any later date, by a declaration addressed to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe, extend the application of this Convention to any other territory specified in the declaration. In respect of such territory the Convention shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the expiration of a period of three months after the date of receipt of such declaration by the Secretary General.

3. Any declaration made under the two preceding paragraphs may, in respect of any territory specified in such declaration, be withdrawn by a notification addressed to the Secretary General. The withdrawal shall become effective on the first day of the month following the expiration of a period of six months after the date of receipt of such notification by the Secretary General.
Article 25 – Reservations

No reservation may be made in respect of the provisions of this Convention.

Article 26 – Denunciation

1. Any Party may at any time denounce this Convention by means of a notification addressed to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe.

2. Such denunciation shall become effective on the first day of the month following the expiration of a period of six months after the date of receipt of the notification by the Secretary General.

Article 27 – Notifications

The Secretary General of the Council of Europe shall notify the member States of the Council and any State Party which has acceded to this Convention of:

a. any signature;

b. the deposit of any instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession;

c. any date of entry into force of this Convention in accordance with Articles 22, 23, 26, 27 and 24;

d. any other act, notification or communication relating to this Convention.
In witness whereof the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto, have signed this Convention.

Done at Strasbourg, the 28th day of January 1981, in English and in French, both texts being equally authoritative, in a single copy which shall remain deposited in the archives of the Council of Europe. The Secretary General of the Council of Europe shall transmit certified copies to each member State of the Council of Europe and to any State invited to accede to this Convention.